

top tips

Managing stress at work

1. Look at organisational as well as personal factors: try a stress audit
2. Make supportive management a priority
3. Manage yourself effectively at work - particularly your time
4. Understand your personal triggers: monitor your stress levels and take action early. Discover your own best stress-busters
5. Learn to say 'no' where necessary: be assertive